|-------|--|---|
| 00100 | Born 10 Dec 1950, in Lancaster, England.Dad was a taxi driver; mother unpaid housewife, and didcleaning work and charity work.   |   |
| 00200 | Schooling: didn't enjoy it. Got very nasty bullying teachers in high school. At the Castle School became a prefect and Head Boy. Wrote for school magazine.  |   |
| 00320 | Dad: apolitical and a philanderer – left the family when lan wasabout 10 years old.Mum was fiercely Scottish, of protestant background. She wasconservative, royalist.   | Family  |
| 00445 | At school was very good at French. Did a few operettas/plays.Not interested in sport. Disqualified from sport for his pooreyesight. More interested in the arts.   | School life   |
| 00600 | Had no idea what to do when left school. Did some textile factory work, ended up as a shop steward. Organised strike action against Edward Heath's 1971 Industrial Relations Act. Worked for Merino Knitwear.  | Early jobs  |
| 00720 | Went back to school to do A Levels. Broke down because ofsexuality. Saw a psychiatrist. Attempted suicide a couple oftimes – more a cry for help. Had aversion therapy – very crude –electric shock. Was trying anything to stop the feelings, theinternalized fear he had.His mother was ok with him being gay. | Aversion therapy  |
| 00950 | If he had had anyone around him saying 'gay is ok', it might'vebeen very different for him. This was 1968. No-one to advisehim. GP put him in touch with Ridgley (where had the aversiontherapy).Managed to stop the therapy.  |   |
| 01130 | Got involved with community political (anarchist) groups; set up a free press. This helped. They rescued him – gave him respite from home and school life. Gave him breathing space.   |   |
| 01220 | The Farmers Arms in Lancaster was a place where all the alternatives met. Those who challenged the status quo. Early 1970s so a lot of gay liberation groups, anarchist groups, counter culture groups.  | The Farmers Arm   |
| 01630 | Lancaster Uni gay liberation group organized a bus to Bradfordwhere DJ West, famous psychiatrist, was speaking abouthomosexuality at a conference. People from all over the country  | Gay LiberationPsychiatrist DJWestDon Milligan |
